EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Volume 12.

GLASGOW, WISSDURI, THURSDAY, APRIL 10, 1851.

Number 6.

GLASGOW WEEKLY TIMES PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.

Office on Water Street, Up Stairs, next door to the Glasgow House. For one year, if paid in advance, It not paid before the end of the year, 3 00 CLUHS. 5 copies I year in advance.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING. for the first, and 50 cents for each subsequent Liberal deductions made to Merchants and others who advertise by the year. AGENTS FOR THIS PVPER. V. B. PALMER, the American Newspaper

Agent, is the only authorized Agent for this paper in the cities of Buston, New York and Philadelphia. Payette-Andrew J. Herndon Mantsville-W.R, Samuel, G.H. Burckbart. Bloomington-Thomas G. Sharp. Linneus-Cartos Boardman. Cambridge-John H. Guove. Chillicothe-W. C. Samuel.

Howard High School, will commence on the first Monday in March, and continue four months.

PARTY WATER TO AND ADDRESS.

school, the Building, containing twelve large and convenient rooms, has been thoroughly ompleted. Our advantages and facilities for imparting instruction are now unsurpassed by known and admired him. His health

BOARD OF INSTRUCTION. Rev. W. T. Lucay, A. M., Superintendent and Principal of the Penale Department. W. T. Davis, A. B., Principal of the Male

Department.
Mrs. Bochaskan Teacher of Instrumen-

Painting Mr. J. L. Ruester, Teacher of the Primary indeed brilliantly so; and after having Male Department.
Miss Maria Chighan, Teacher of the Pri mary Female Department.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The course of study is substantially the same as that parsued in our Colleges. dies are required (in addition to moral and mental Philosophy, Belles Lettres, &c.) to pass cient to enable them to enter the Junior class in College.

Primary studies Common English Common tage Higher
Ancient Languages
Vocal music EXTRA CHARGES. without French

Drawing and Painting Bearding, in excellent private families, convenient to the institution, including washing, fuel and lights, $1 50 to $2 per week For further particulars address Lucky of Davis, Fayette, Mo. SAMUEL C. MAJOR, Prest. of the b'rd of Trustees. Fayette, Feb. 13, 1851.

GLASGOW HOUSE.

Till S House is now open and ready for the reception of Boarders and Travellers. The patronage of the public is most respectfully solicited. C. H. GUYGER, Proprietor.

General Stage Office, kept at the Glas gow House. Glasgow, Missouri, Dec. 5, 1850.

CHAS. H. MILTON, (SUCCESSOR TO THOS. ANDREWS.)

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEAL ER IN STOVES AND HOLLOW-WARE; manufacturer of Copper, Japaned and plain Tiu and Sheet Iron Wares, No. 72 North Second street, a few doors south of the onstantly on hand a variety of the heaviest constructed Cooking Stoves; also Coal and Wood heating stoves. Particular attention paid to the selecting of the best material and manufacture of Wares for the city or country trade. All work fully guaranteed.

The subscriber would respectfully announce to his old eastomers, as well as the former patrons of Thomas Andrews, that he is fully prepared to fill all orders in the shortest possible time, and on the most resonable terms; and hopes by proper attention to his business to give entire satisfaction to all who may favor him with their patronage. St. Louis, Feb. 13-tim.

Livery stable.

NEW ADMINISTRATION. EMERSON & HANDLEY would respect-fully inform the public that they have since last night," said I. purchased of the Messrs. Annor their entire establishment, and are now prepared to accommodute both citizens and strangers, with every description of vehicle, and good saddle horses, at a moment's notice. Theadditions we are making in new carriuges, Buggies, and fine horses, (none other kept.) will enable us to fornish "turn outs, they may desire to go.

By strict attention to the wants of the ter? Any accident? community, and a fixed determination to deserve the patronage which has been so liberally bestowed upon our ptedecessors, we feel assured that our efforts to please, will be appreciated by a generous community. be in readiness to attend funerals, either in the City or country. Glasgow, Jan. 1, 1851.

From Bentley's Magnzine. Sketch from a Physician.

One of the most extraordinary instances of the delusion which ever came 15 00 under my observation, was presented in the person of young Edward N-One square, (12 lines or less,) One Dollar The name of insanity, in the minds of most people, is connected with ideas of delerium and danger, of the barred cell, or shaded apartment, nearly as awful to the chilled soul of the spectator as however, whose mental aberrations are glaring at all, form but a small part of the many who, although mingling is society, and conforming to its ceremonies, are, nevertheless, haunted by some dreadful thought, some apparation in the shape of a fancy, which they are unable to banish, and which, FAYETTE, MO. in reality, constitutes a lunacy as disin reality, constitutes a lunacy as disthat of the raving wretch whose peals Through the liberality of the friends of the of hysteric laughter are heard mingling with the clank of his chains. Edward was not my intimate friend, but I had was not apparently impaired, and he had never dreamed of requiring my professional aid, although he was naturally of that nervous and irritable state of body and mind which most easily Miss Sahan Bann, Associate in the Female falls a prey to hypochondriacal imagi-Department and Teacher of Drawing and nations. His talents were dazzling-completed a very finished course of classical education, he had entered upon the study of the legal profession, with the ardour of youth and conscious As a requisite for Graduation, young La- genius. In person I never knew any more perfectly noble; and his manners a thorough examination upon the entire exercised a fascinating influence over course of Mathematics, including Conic Sec- every circle, He was the ornament, tions and Olmsted's larger Philosophy, In addition to the above, young Gentlemen are required to study Latin and Greek suffiI never saw in any one perceptions of the beautiful more continually awake. I had gained some insight into his $5 00 character, however, which surprised s 50 me, by some stanzas shown me, and ascribed to him. They were totally irreconcileable with his general loveliness $14 50 of demeanour, and seemed poured forth in an agonizing spirit of wretchedness, which I could scarcely contemplate with unmoistoned eves.

> of all present. As he stood by the ger, which agonizes forever, but cannot beauty. piano, in the act of singing, I was kill." large black eyes, and the mellow rich that all human beings were subject to ry. "You little coward," said Edward.-with a dangerous earnestness, blushed from his examination. as she perceived I noticed her; and "Go abroad" continued I; "walk now you shall her." yet, with a look of glowing admiration. forth through the church yard. It is We accordingly started for the - piest man in the world."

innermost core of her heart:

lighted by any expression but that of a pose; besides, in dwelling too intensely Mary had forgotten her fears, and in my looks, and said:

you returned in a carriage."

such carlessness. What was the mat- orism was his disease.

He raised his languid eyes. "Doctor, I have often had a mind to "Confess! What?"

creature, this reptile, this basest and of her sparkling joy."

as ever."

love dies or turns traitor. I have knelt ure and hope. of existence."

yourself so unfortunate?"

whispered me, while the lids of her crowded with mossy stones and stately falls. holding his fine countenance, now un whose souls yearn for that unbroken re- roar of the cataract proceeded.

He smiled mournfully.

the heart is a void? All those I could were completely blessed. "Oh, a slight shower," he answered. despise, if in their stead I possessed af- "Come, Mary," said Edward, "let us the curse of my life has been that "We shall get wet with the spray," better times, four years later, 'Aye, doctor, but I walked out again.' these should be always disappointed .- said Mary.

young and lovely women."

confess to you, but, some how or other, I know that if I should dare to fix my in one unbroken sheet of green, white, to partial views, or to one particular fliet with the military rolls, the former, A Hearse and Carriages will at all times a fear, a silly fear, has prevented me," outpouring passions upon any one, it and gold. Our path was narrow, and object. And, if, at last, all should be as a general rule, will be preferred; would be singling her out for heaven's led along the very bank of the river, lost, it has saved itself-its own integ- and where the rolls are altogether silent His face assumed an expression of wrath, from all the crowd about her, which, after the leap, lapsed by with a rive and worth - Von Kuchel.

horror, and a momentary paleness over- Either she would hate me, or I should silent swiftness, presenting a broad BOUNTY LAND LAW-INSTRUC. ny of officers and soldiers with whom be the means of leading her into some black current of extraordinary depth "Doctor, I am a wretch! a blighted, misery, new unforseen and inconceiva- and power. We picked our road over scathed outcast; life is a curse. Since ble. Disease would strike her, or some the broken ledges. I was foremost, Providence first created man, this puny wintry grief would freeze the current Edward next, and, lastly the dear, the meanest of all his productions; he never "Ridiculous," said I. for I noticed our journey; the path being too narrow act of September 28, 1850, and some of or are entitled to receive, land bounty. formed one so low, so unfortunate, that he seemed to waver in his anguish, to admit of any other method of reach. the rules and regulations heretofore under any act of Congress heretofore that the turn which the conversation ing the point proposed. The rest of the prescribed either misinterpreted or dis- passed. In all applications hereafter "Why, Edward," I said, chilled had taken had touched some string in company had pursued a different direct regarded, the following instructions, appresented, reasonable time being allowthrough with the singular earnestness, his bosom, whose vibrations stirred tion. wine, women, the unspringing of the pletion of which the party set out on a ted on the water. mind from protracted and gloomy dellittle tour, usual on such occasions, and pression—the natural brightness of my I required no powerful persuasions to the excitement has passed away; heav, were high. He never appeared to so hideous light-hating owl, are not more how the influence of such circum dates: lonely, dark, and miserable than I." stances wold at length have rejestab "And for what, pray, Edward!" said pished his mind, and restored the elas more intelligible shape. It is beginning limits of Mexico or on the horders the l'ension Office, but before the issu-

My incredulity appeared to vex him, too far advanced in life to fall into ranks, the upshot of the present posi- engaged in the war and directly con- tent for the minor children to apply for and to urge him to be more commu- raptures about a face, or a form, be it tion of affairs will be the passing over nected with its operations. nicative than he had at first purposed. male or female; for the years which both the present prominent Democratic 2. In the war of 1812, troops were on fling the necessary proofs of titles "Dector, I am labouring under a sprinkle snow on a man's forchead, candidates, Cass and Houston, and the frequently called out by State author) curse-a hideous, blasting, unshunnable also chill the heart, and sober down the selection of some other man, as was ty, and not immediately mastered in ban from some demon. It follows me restless fancy. But the unusual laves done in the case of Mr. Polk. Cass the service of the United States. If the like a shadow, everywhere, every- liness of the happy bride, the grace and Houston are both bitterly opposed Federal Government paid such troops where, everywhere. It crosses me in and the propriety of her deportment to each other, and would as soon see from the time of their enrolment and all my plans. It falls like a thunder and the evidently favourable sway with the devil elected as that his opponent before they were actually mustered in bolt on all my budding hopes. Every which she controlled the wayward and political friend should succeed .- the service of the United States, that struck with his lofty and elegant form, I endeavored to persuade him of the She stated no reason, but that she had though sufficiently known, is not dis who were regularly mustered in the serthe expression which flashed from his impossibility of his suspicion. I urged a fear of that precipitous style of scene- tasteful to any particular portion of it. vice of the United States, and formed glistening eyes drooped, as if she were monuments. The names of sweet It was one of those glowing, tranquil Monroe House, sign of the Gilt Stove, has saying something which she felt to the women and children, of fathers and summer afternoons, when we reached mothers; all are written there in melan | the scene, which casts a subdued splen-"Edward N. ought to be the hap choly silence. Each one of those has dor all over nature. The red beams of wrenched fond hearts, has left wrecked the declining sun streamed through the The next morning I was called in to hopes and affections. Thousands green forest, as we wandered down the see him. I absolutely started on bes throng the streets of this great city, broken rocks to the spot whence the > dim weariness, an spathy, as of one upon your miseries, you overlook in was the liveliest of the company. The sick of life. I had never yet thus ac- numerable blessings. Everybody be- sound of her sweet laugh yet rings in companied him behind the scenes, and, lieves you to be happy. You have my cars; her eyes sparkling with the as I took his dry, feverish hand, and health, education, personal advantages, excitement and exercise, her cheeks compelled me to murmur a prayer of

and the apparent agony with which he within him more agreeable emotions. I looked back once. Edward was or, are issued for the benefit of all per- will be required that the claimant spoke; "what nonsense has mastered With difficulty I persuaded him to un. stooping to pick up a shell. Mary flung sons interested. you this morning? You are slightly in- bosom himself to me, and I learned a little pebble at me, and shook her head 1. The act of 11th February, 1817, has not received, nor is entitled to redisposed-with cold, and a touch of the with the most pleasing surprise, that he laughingly. I turned away, and in a having testricted land bounty for servi- coive, such bounty. the chamber of death itself. Those, blues; to-morrow you will be as merry had conceived a determined passion moment again looked back. Never ces in the Mexican war to the non-comfor the lady who, on the previous even- shall I forget the shock-the horror missioned officers, musicians and pri- that widows are entitled to the land "To-morrow!" he echoed bitterly ing had betrayed such a decided inter- that thrilled through my soul, at the vates of the regular army, the claims of bounty of deceased soldiers, if they and sarcastically; "merry!-oh, yes .- est on him. I mentioned the circum sight which then blasted my view .- commissioned officers in that service were widows at the passage of the net This is a momentary feeling, I suppose. stance; it thrilled him with pleasure .- Edward was standing in an attitude of arc, for the first time recognized by the of 28th September, 1850. This is the This withering agony, which has rank- We parted-weeks passed away; and, frenzy, his eyes starting from their act of 28th September, 1851. It was law in its general application; but the led in my bosom for years. Oh, no, after the customary preliminaries, their sockets, his hands clapsed convulsively not the intention of that act to bestow widow of an officer or soldier killed in doctor; the flushes of brief cheerful- mutual partiality was mutually under- together, his lips quivering, and his face bounty land on the whole army of the battle is entitled to the maximum alness, which you have noticed in so- stood, and they were married. I attend terribly pale. Mary was nowhere to United States, wherever located, but lowance of one hundred and sixty acres. ciety, are a species of intoxication; ded the joyful ceremony, on the com be seen. Her bonnet and plume float, only on those whose service was con- without reference to the period of her > nature gleaming out fitfully; but when accompany them. Edward's spirits ton correspondent of the New York employers attached to the War D part, tion her claim is valid. Herald thus sums up the gossip of that ment in Washington, their service not 11. The death of an afficer and so! ens! the slimy toad in the dungeon, the much advantage. I could perceive city, in reference to Presidential candi- being of that kind which was contem- dier may be proved by satisfactory eviticity of his broken spirits. I am rather to be evident that in the Democratic thereof, provided they were netively ing of the warrant it shall be compething I undertake fails; every one I gloom of my friend, elicited both pleas. Houston, previous to leaving this city, payment is equivalent to a recognition made no secret of his contempt for the of their service from the date of the endown and prayed that the lightning "She beams upon him," I thought "as noble Michigander; whilst Gen. Cass, rolment. The time for which they might strike me, that disease might the spring sun upon the late frozen more politic, but equally bitter, fully re- were paid by the United States furnishtouch me, or that some sudden accir carth, and his bosom shall change from ciprocated this amiable feeling. But es a convenient and practical standard dent might break this nightmare dream a desert to a garden clothed with luxu both these gentlemen acknowledge the for estimating the period of service. riant verdure. Accustomed, as I am, jurisdiction of a convention, and will, 3. The conflicts with the Creek In-I at once perceived my friend was to the dark incidents of life, the dream therefore, appeal to that ancient tribudians which commenced about 5th discharged, the young gent takes his andly afflicted with hypochondriacism, that this most spacious plan of happiness and for an adjustment. It is not to be May, 1835, and and a ded 30th Sept. 1837, revenues, and begins to travel-towards "And how long have you supposed with my friend had ever formed, supposed that the Democratic conven might also be broken, never entered ton will commit such an indiscretion as of 1850; large bodies of troops have poverty, which he reaches before death ton will commit such an indiscretion as "Since my boyhood-it has ever my mind. Gloomy, indeed are the to make any selection between the ri- been mustered in the United States serbeen thus. I am permitted to hope, to ways of the world. I tremble and val aspirants—a selection which would vice, and several engagements having monied rank, it is not hereditary; it is believe myself happy. The most de- shudder to look abroad. have the inevitable effect of weakening occurred, attended by the loss of many accessible to all; three good seasons of One evening I accompanied him to a licious and tempting prospects are It was proposed by Edward that the the party by the cold support, or per-lives in battle, within that period. The cotton will send a generation of men rather brilliant fete at B.'s. Habitua spread out before my eyes; but when party should deviate a day's journey haps open opposition, which the unsue disturbances on the south western from up-a score of years will bring them all ted as I was to his animated manner I would approach, just as I have, or as from their route, for the purpose of vis- cessful aspirant's friends would give to tier in 1836 -- in the Cherokee country in society, even I was astonished at the I think I have reached the summit of iting a romantic cataract, embosomed the man who received the preference. in 1836 and 1837 -- and the New York perpetual sparkles of wit and merri- my desires, the demon strikes-wrench: among towering claffs, and presenting The convention will do no such foolish disturbance in 1838 and 1830, are not ment, which drew upon him the eyes es my heart-stabs, stabs with a dog- a scene of uncommon grandeur and thing. It will hit upon a third man, considered as embraced by the provisand that man will come from the great lions of the act of September, 1859. Mary objected. It was strange .-- northwest. It will be a man who, at 4. It has been settled that Indians and go to shiftless poverty; next, their this description, as matters now stand, army, were entitled to the benefit of the A fair young girl, who had been gazing his own those of others were concealed "She wants your assistance, doctor .-- and that man is Stephen A. Douglass, act. In the case of the Cherokees, who sap from the earth, changes it into You have cured me, you know, and Illinois. Weether he will be elected or have a regular organized government, leaves and blossoms, spreads them ster's, will scarcely object to an a range, necessary ouths. Webster. The object, therefore, will that particular kind of service. felt his pulse, he read my astonishment accomplishments, youth and wealth." glowing, and all her looks and words be, if an accommodation cannot be 6. Surgeons employed by a com-"You have certainly exposed yourself "Alas, alas! What are those when gratitude, that two whom I so loved "friends" shall be turned into syrup, to compensation, but not commissioned or

> Our voices were lost in the deafen mutability of human affairs, and how vice. "You are surrounded," said I, "by ing roar of the heavy body of water slight a circumstance may change the 8. When the declaration of the which swept beautifully over the preci whole course of events. Such a spirit, claimant on oath, supported by a reg-"Aye," said he, "but who loves me? pice, and poured, splendidly flushing, too, rests upon itself; it is not confined ular and authentic discharge, is in con- of Aridium. It bears some analogy to

TION.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR. Pension Office, March 20, 1851. A dence. New questions having been present- 9. The act of September, 1850, exbeautiful, and beloved companion of cd in the execution of the bounty land cludes all persons who have received proved by the Secretary of the Interi. ad for those instructions to circulate, it

T. s. F. nected with or had a direct reference to husband's service, and, although a mar-Next Passmercy -The Washing. ly construed to embrace the officers and unmarried at the date of her applies

There is but one man who answers to a component part of the line of the not is, however, another matter, which and a judicial system in operation, the abroad in great glory, sheds them off can be better answered at a later peri affidavit in support of an application to fall back to the earth, again to mined. The same causes which will ope- for land, must be made before one gle with the soil, and at length re-aprate in the Democratic arrangement of their judges, whose official charges pear in new trees and fresh garniture,for the Presidential contest, are also up. ter shall be certified by their principal Hune's Merchants' Magazine. pheable to the whigs. Fillmore, if he re- chief. The Creeks, having no judicial mains quiet cannot be got out of the officers, the United States agent in that way; and Scott's friends, and Web, nation is authorized to adminster the ment which will merely postpone their | 5. It has been heretofore stated that own chances. If Cass or Houston are 'teamsters and artificers were not endefeated, there is an end of them. If titled to land bounty; but this is not to gage master, met with his death in a either one is elected, good by to the be so understood, if such teamsters and chances of ever getting the other in artificers belonged to the line of the running trim. So it is with Scott and army, and were regularly detailed for made by which the gall of the opposing manding officer, at a stipulated rate of postpone the personal contest by per- belonging to the line of the army, are mitting other men to run on the course not entitled to land bounty.

"But that was not till late; besides fections occupied and successful. But walk to yonder rock. Come, doctor." in '52, looking to luck and heaven, for 7. It has been decided by the Department, that the substitute perform ing the military service, and not the "Walked out again!" exclaimed I .- I am forever rolling the rock to the "Who cares," replied Edward, "no Hoperciness .- True hope is based employer, is entitled to the land bounty; What! after two o'clock, and those summit to behold it again cast down." one with a soul can take cold with such on the energy of character. A strong but when the engagement is partly perequal in style and comfort to any establishment in syle and comfort to any establishment in the State. We are also prepared, at heated rooms! Walk out again in a I hinted to him, with an attempt to a scene before his eyes. Come along, mind always hopes, and has always formed by both, each is entitled to his all times, to attend on pleasure parties, and to some mirth, that backel- you coward! What are you afraid of?" cause to hope, because it knows the share, according to the period of scr-

he served, and whose names are found on the rolls, will be received as evi-

should state in his declaration, that ho that war. Nor can the act be proper, ried woman at the passage of the act, if plated. It is not necessary that officers dence; and if such officer or soldier Political matters are getting into a should have been actually within the should distaffer the declaration filed at the said warrant, and receive the same > Twen y years ago, this one made candies, that one sold cheese and Lutter, another butchered, a fourth carried on a distiltery, another was a contractor on canals, others were merchants and mechanics. They are acquainted with both ends of society, as their children will be after them-though it will not do to suy so out load! For often you shall find that those toiling worms hatch butterflies-and they live about a year. Death brings division of property, and down, and send their children to labor. The father grabs, and grows rich-his children strut, and use the money .-Their children in turn inherit the pride. hildren, reinvigorated by fresh plebeian blood, and by the smell of the clod.

Thus society, like a tree, draws its MELANCHOLY RAILROAD CASUALTY. On Wednesday evening, at half-past 10 g'elock, as the Baltimore Railroad train was passing down the road on Broad street, Mr. Charles R. Morrell, the bagsudden and melancholy manner. As the corner of Lombard street, Mr. M. attempted to get off the baggage car. when his foot slipped and he fell apon the track; one of the wheels passed over his back, near the shoulder, crushing him and causing instant death. The deceased was a young man of business habits, and had been in the employ of the Railroad company for four or five years past. He has left a wife and several young children to mourn their awful and sudden bereavement. An inquest has held upon the body by the Coroner, and the jury rendered a verdiet of accidental death .- Philadelphia Ledger, 21st, ult.

Did you ever know a young lady to as to the claimant, the positive testimo- complain of the loss of a front tooth,